For me, Easter is a wonderful time.....

and traditionally it is a time that I travel home to be with my parents and siblings. It is a time of completion and renewal - a time to give thanks for everything so far and invite into my life extra good health, along with continued personal and professional success.

Easter, also known as 'Passover' or 'Resurrection Day', is one of the more important religious feasts of the Christian...

Qing Ming Festival

The Qing Ming festival is a traditional Chinese festival held on the 104th day after the winter solstice.

This year the Qing Ming festival will fall on April 5. It is both the fifth term in the traditional lunar calendar and a festival to hold a memorial ceremony for those relatives who have passed away.

The Chinese community place great emphasis on their ancestors....
